To deploy the software (Installation instructions will include an in-depth version):

- Install the Bookwise folder from GitHub (link here).
- Install the requirements file to import all correct libraries.

Bookwise is a web application that recommends books to users and a social network system in one.

Home Page

Option to log in if a returning user or sign up if a first-time user.

Sign up

A screenshot of the Bookwise sign up form. The form is a white box with a close button (an 'X' in a circle) in the top right corner. It contains five input fields: 'First name:', 'Last name:', 'Email:', 'Password:', and 'Password confirmation:'. Below these fields is a link that says 'Already a user?'. At the bottom of the form is a red button with the text 'SIGN UP' in white capital letters.

Sign up page for the user.

Valid email must be used as an email verification will be sent.

Forgot Password

A screenshot of a 'Forgot Password' form. The form has a title 'Forgot Password' and a close button 'X'. Below the title, it says 'Enter your email address below, and an email containing instructions for setting a new one will be sent.' There is an 'Email:' label followed by a text input field. Below the input field is a checkbox labeled 'Remember your password?'. At the bottom is a red button labeled 'SEND'.

If a user has forgotten the password to their account an email can be sent to their email to reset the password.

Change Password

A screenshot of a user profile menu. The menu is a vertical list of options: 'View profile', 'Track applications', 'Edit profile', 'Edit password', and 'Log out'. The 'Edit password' option is highlighted with a red rectangular border.

User password can be changed from the Nav Bar -> User Name -> Edit Password

A screenshot of a 'Change Password' form. The form has a title 'Change Password'. It contains three text input fields: 'New Password:', 'New Password Confirmation:', and 'Current password:'. At the bottom is a red button labeled 'Change Password'.

Browse

A screenshot of a navigation bar. The bar is dark red and contains the 'Bookwise' logo, a 'Browse' dropdown menu, a 'Manage' dropdown menu, a 'Posts' dropdown menu, an 'Inbox' icon, a search input field with a 'Search' button, and the 'Ctrl Intelligence' logo. The 'Browse' dropdown menu is open, showing a list of options: 'All Books', 'All Clubs', and 'All Users'.

This feature that is located on the navigation bar allows you to view all users that are currently signed up to Bookwise. View all clubs that have been created within Bookwise and, lastly, the available books.
